EXCELLENCE IN PUBLIC SERVICE

COME HELP US CELEBRATE

Join us for a luncheon celebrating the beginning of the Show Me State Excellence in Public Service Series, an organization that promises to provide great changes for conservative women across the great state of Missouri. We will have the honor of presenting our 2009/2010 class, the first official class for the Show Me State Series.

At the luncheon, Richard Godfrey, historian and author of Home of the Brave, Confronting and Conquering Challenging Times, will explain how America's past provides solutions for today's challenges. Jeff Roe, CEO of Axiom Strategies, a political consulting firm, will speak to us about the Missouri landscape, from Joplin to Kirksville.
